Safiya and her mum have never seen eye to eye. Her mum doesn't understand Safiya's love of gaming.

But then her mum falls into a coma and, when Safiya waits by her bedside, she finds herself in a strange alternative world that looks a bit like one of her games. And there's a rebellious teenage girl, with a secret, who looks suspiciously familiar.

An authoritative guide to navigating the online world for teenagers.

The internet is part of our daily lives—most of us check our phones far more than we'd care to admit. We love our devices...but too much time online can lead to stress, over-sharing, low self-esteem, loss of concentration and may expose us to online abuse.

This biography tells the story of the woman who invented the world's first computer.

Ada was the visionary who recognised the true potential of Babbage's cog-wheel computer, The Analytical Engine. She demonstrated to the world that computers wouldn't merely be adding machines, but that they would be able to think.
